2014–16ನೇ ಸಾಲಿನ ಪದಾಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳು ಹಾಗೂ ಕಾರ್ಯಕಾರಿ ಸಮಿತಿ ಸದಸ್ಯರು

ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯೋತ್ಸವದ ಶುಭಾಶಯಗಳು

ಸಂಪಾದಕೀಯ

ಸಂಘದ 2016–18ನೇ ಸಾಲಿನ ಪದಾಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳ ಹಾಗೂ ಕಾರ್ಯಕಾರಿ ಸಮಿತಿ ಸದಸ್ಯರ ಆಯ್ಕೆಯ ಚುನಾವಣೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಮತದಾರ ಸದಸ್ಯ ಬಾಂಧವರು ಹೊಸ ತಂಡವನ್ನು ಆರಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಅದರಂತೆ ಸಂಘದ ಬೆಳವಣಿಗೆ, ಕೊಟ್ಟ ಆಶ್ವಾಸನೆಗಳಂತೆ ನಡೆಯುವ ಕೆಲಸಗಳ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಸರ್ವ ಸದಸ್ಯರುಗಳು ನಿರೀಕ್ಷೆಯಲ್ಲಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಈ ಹೊಸ ತಂಡವು ಉತ್ತಮ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸಿ, ಸಂಘದ ಹಿತ ದೃಷ್ಟಿಯಿಂದ ಉತ್ತಮ ಕೆಲಸಗಳನ್ನು ಮಾಡಿ ಎಲ್ಲರ ಮನಸ್ಸನ್ನು ಗೆಲ್ಲಲಿ ಎಂಬುದು ನಮ್ಮ ಆಶಯ.

2014–16ರ ತಂಡ ಡಾ। ನರೇಶ್ ಶೆಟ್ಟಿಯವರ ನೇತೃತ್ವದಲ್ಲಿ ಜನರ ನಿರೀಕ್ಷೆಯಂತೆ ಒಳ್ಳೆಯ ಕೆಲಸಗಳನ್ನು ಮಾಡಿರುವುದಲ್ಲದೇ ಬಂಟ ಸಮುದಾಯದ ಸಂಸ್ಕೃತಿ, ಸೊಡಗನ್ನು ಎತ್ತಿ ಹಿಡಿಯುವಲ್ಲಿ ಸಫಲವಾಗಿದೆ. ಈ

ಪದಾಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳು ಮತ್ತು ಕಾರ್ಯಕಾರಿ ಸಮಿತಿಯವರು ಸ್ನೇಹ ಚಿಂತನೆಯ ಸಂಪಾದಕತ್ವವನ್ನು ನನಗೆ ನೀಡಿ ಎರಡು ವರ್ಷಗಳ ಕಾಲ ಸಂಘದ ಸೇವೆ ಮಾಡುವ ಅವಕಾಶವನ್ನು ಒದಗಿಸಿಕೊಟ್ಟಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಇವರೆಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ನಾನು ಋಣಿ. ಶ್ರೀ ಸತ್ಯಾನಂದ ಮೇಲಾಂಟರ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷತೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ನಮ್ಮ ಉಪಸಮಿತಿಯ ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಸದಸ್ಯರು ನನಗೆ ಉತ್ತಮ ಸಹಕಾರ, ಮಾರ್ಗದರ್ಶನ ನೀಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಶ್ರೀಮತಿ ವನಮಾಲಾ ಸಂಪನ್ನಕುಮಾರ್, ಶ್ರೀಮತಿ ರಾಜಶ್ರೀ ಶೆಟ್ಟಿ, ಶ್ರೀ ಚಂದ್ರಶೇಖರ ಆಳ್ವ, ಶ್ರೀ ನಾಗರಾಜ ಶೆಟ್ಟಿ, ಶ್ರೀ ಪ್ರಮೋದಚಂದ್ರ ಭಂಡಾರಿ ಹಾಗೂ ಇತರ ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಸದಸ್ಯರ ಕೊಡುಗೆಯನ್ನು ನಾನು ಸ್ಮರಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದೇನೆ. ಬಂಟರ ಸಂಘದ ಕಛೇರಿಯ ಅಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳು ಹಾಗೂ ಸಿಬ್ಬಂದಿ ವರ್ಗದವರ ಸಹಕಾರ, ಮುಖ್ಯವಾಗಿ ಶ್ರೀ ಆನಂದ ಶೆಟ್ಟ ಮತ್ತು ಶ್ರೀಮತಿ ಮಾಲಿನಿ ಶೆಟ್ಟಿಯವರ ಕೊಡುಗೆಯನ್ನು ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಗೌರವದಿಂದ ಸ್ಮರಿಸುತ್ತೇನೆ. ಪೂರ್ಣಿಮ ಪ್ರಿಂಟರ್ನ್ ಮುದ್ರಣಕಾರರಿಗೂ ನನ್ನ ವಂದನೆಗಳು.

ನಮ್ಮ ಅನೇಕ ಸದಸ್ಯ ಮಿತ್ರರು ನನಗೆ ಆಗಾಗ ಸಲಹೆ ಸೂಚನೆ, ಎಚ್ಚರಿಕೆ ನೀಡುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. ಅವರ ಉತ್ತಮ ಪ್ರೇರಣೆಯ ಮಾತುಗಳಾಗಲೀ, ಟೀಕೆಗಳಾಗಲೀ ಎಲ್ಲವನ್ನೂ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಗೌರವದಿಂದ ನಾನು ಸ್ವೀಕರಿಸಿದ್ದೇನೆ. ಇದು ನನ್ನ ಕಲಿಯುವಿಕೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಬಹು ಮುಖ್ಯವಾದ ಪಾತ್ರ ವಹಿಸುತ್ತದೆ ಎಂದು ನಾನು ಭಾವಿಸಿದ್ದೇನೆ. ಅನೇಕ ಸದಸ್ಯರು ತಮ್ಮ ಲೇಖನ, ಕವನ ಕಥೆಗಳನ್ನು ನೀಡಿ ನಮ್ಮನ್ನು ಪ್ರೋತ್ಸಾಹಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ನಮ್ಮ ಸಂಪಾದಕ ಸಮಿತಿಯ ಪರವಾಗಿ ಇವರೆಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ಹಾಗೂ ಸರ್ವ ಸದಸ್ಯರಿಗೂ ಧನ್ಯವಾದ.

The honorable members of the Sangha have elected a new team of Office Bearers and EC Members with a lot of expectations in line with the promises made during the elections. The previous team headed by Dr. Naresh Shetty has been very creative in showcasing our rich cultural heritage by organizing many meaningful and very appropriate programs relevant to the current thinking of the community. The members of the Sangha would obviously hope and wish that the new team not only does continue the trend but also will excel in thinking out of the box and carrying the Sangha to new heights of excellence in whatever they do.

The team of 2014-16 had provided me an opportunity to be the editor of our esteemed magazine Sneha Chinthane, for which I am really thankful. Our Editorial Board headed by Sri Sathyananda Melanta as Chairman with talented and committed members like Sri Chandrashekar Alva, Sri Pramodchandra Bhandary, Sri Nagaraj Shetty, Sri Prakash Shetty, Smt. Vanamala Sampanna Kumar, Smt. Rajashree Shetty and others have extended great support without which we would not have been able to deliver as we did. There was very good cooperation from the office staff of the Sangha especially Mr. Anand Shetty and Smt. Malini Shetty who were always there to help us irrespective of the time of the day. I thank Poornima Printers who printed and delivered the magazines on time, every time.

Many of our members have contributed useful articles from time to time and have helped the magazine earn its name and fame. As the editor of the magazine I had the privilege of receiving feedbacks, sometimes good and at times not exactly pleasing. However the editorial board and myself have taken these comments in our stride and taken them as feedbacks for improving our working.

I thank all our members for their direct or indirect support. I hope the new editorial committee will excel even further since Sneha Chinthane is, after all, the face of our Sangha.

President's Message

It is an end of tenure and it is a time to say goodbye. The last two years were an extremely busy time for us. My team consisting of the adventurous young and the worldly wise had a blend that was hard to match. Each one was like a star and each of them shone brightly in the sky. They were given freedom to fly and they really ensured that sky was the limit. I want to express my sincere gratitude to each one of them for all their work and support:

Thank you My Team. Thank you for the warm caring and the sense of affection you bestowed on me.

Thank you for showing the world, your dream & your talent.

On the days when the darkness is greater than the light;

On the days when it seems like all hope is lost;

On the days when we find ourselves wrestling with the most simple things in life; on those days we found a ray of light in people: good, caring and thoughtful people that you are. Thank you to all for your time, efforts and your contributions. I will miss you all. You were truly an exceptional group. The two words "Thank you" look so little for so much you have given me.

Thank you, my dear Bunts Sangha members for your love and understanding. What a person has done during his life should not be measured by what he has achieved for himself, but rather by what he has left behind for others. I think we have left a memory of great moments, which will always be remembered. For some work, we may not get the credit but history will remain incomplete without it. I will leave it to our members to pass the judgment.

The elections are over and it is a time for a new team to take over.

To the new team I can only say...

You have achieved an important milestone, and you are about to embark on the next great adventure in your life. I have no idea of the roads that you have travelled or of the dreams that you are building for Bunts Sangha's future. And even if I did know every minor detail, I would be very careful about handing out advice. - In the months and years ahead, you will face the enormous challenge of keeping up with a constantly changing world. You will need to be open and flexible in order to embrace that change. While circumstances may change around us, values are not negotiable. It takes time and effort to clarify what you believe in, what puts meaning into your life and, ultimately, gives you integrity.

I am telling you these things to give you an idea of the results that can be achieved when there are clear objectives, a strong motivation and enormous passion. We still have much to accomplish with earnest commitment and humility. This is a crucial moment and our people couldn't need your talent and energies, your passion and commitment more.

We all have a responsibility to make the most of the opportunities available to us now. We have a duty to commit, to do, what we are able to do, to dedicate our individual skills and talents, to unite the best of society and work together to achieve higher objectives. I can only hope that you will have the courage, every day, to listen to your heart and appreciate all that the world is capable of offering, I pray that each one of you work for the team and for the overall growth of our Sangha. My best wishes for the new team and may our Lord Ganesha be with you in all your activity.

Congratulations

Captain Krithi I R Shetty, the first Bunt Ladv Commander.

Capt Krithi I R Shetty, daughter of Inna Baggara Guthu CA, I. R. Shetty and Kodialguttu Kavita Shetty has become a commander on the Airbus 320, with Indigo

Airlines recently. She is the first lady commander in the bunt community and one among the very few young lady commanders in the country/ world.

Captain Krithi had the honor to be presented with Four Stripe Aplets, the identity of a commander by examiner Indigo Airline, Capt S K Bhalla. Krithi was a Commercial Pilot License (CPL) holder at the age of 19 after being trained on single engine and multi-engine aircrafts in India. Australia and America. After which she was immediately appointed as Co-Pilot and within a short period of 5 years she progressed to become a commander on A320. This is really commendable and definitely requires a blend of dedication, focus, skill and intelligence. She being academically brilliant is also a post graduate in Commerce (M Com) from N M College. Mumbai

CA, I. R. Shetty is one of the advisory board members of the metro based Kannada Patrakarara Sangh - Maharashtra.

Bunts' Sangha Bangalore Congratulates and wishes her all the very best

A Retrospective Look!

Good times come and go, but the memories will last forever.....

- Dr. Meera Krishnappa

On the 30th of July 2016, the term of the present committee comes to an end and on the 31st July 2016 a new team will get elected. The old has to give way to the new, that is the law of nature and it holds good for everything in life.

It seems like yesterday that we the office bearers and committee members took charge of our various portfolios. These two years have been filled with excitement, euphoria, some dismay but overall, a lot of bonhomie.

When we began the term, each one of us was charged with enthusiasm, energy and a will to do the best for the Sangha. In more ways than one, I definitely think that if there was a report card to grade our performance, we have done pretty well with many firsts to our credit.

Our committee had a happy blend of maturity and experience along with youth and energy. This was a potent mix and there were definitely high expectations. The President was well known for his dynamism and leadership; a senior experienced Vice President, a dedicated hands-on Secretary, a committed and knowledgeable Treasurer, an ebullient and energetic Joint Secretary and Committee Members who were all eager to show their talents.

All the programmes organized these last two years were unique and showcased the organizing skills of the various committee chairpersons. Whether it was the Cultural Committee, the Youth Wing, the Sports Committee or the Yakshagana Committee, the Ladies Wing, the Matrimonial Cell or the Literary Committee et al, they have all discharged their duties in a hugely successful manner. I have named just a few committees; which definitely does not detract from the work of the other committees.

This committee managed to purchase land for the Sangha which was sorely needed to expand the activities of the Sangha. On popular demand, we have initiated a second election booth this year and we even celebrated BISU at MSR Nagar. A Smart Card has been launched with each member being given a unique number while the website has been reactivated and updated. The Sangha also has a redesigned Logo. All these moves have been appreciated by most of our members.

For me as the Vice President, it was a wonderful experience to interact with all the committee members and enjoy the camaraderie at our regular meetings. Most meetings were held in a cordial atmosphere where the mood was consensus rather than confrontation. It was only during the last few months of our term that we did have some differences of opinion leading to some snags. But I believe that the overall spirit has been that of unity and unanimity and I feel proud to have been part of this committee. I have made some wonderful friends and I thank each of the members who have in some way touched my life.

In fact, some memories are unforgettable, remaining ever vivid and heartwarming!

It has been a great journey with some ups and downs but as we hand over the baton to the next committee, here's wishing them the very best in their endeavours to keep the flag of Bunts Sangha flying high. Let us work together for the growth of this Sangha for which many great individuals have toiled. Let us spend our energies in constructive work rather than petty divisive politics because ultimately, an institution or an organization is larger than individuals.

I conclude with the immortal lines by H.W Longfellow:

"Lives of great men all remind us, we can make our lives sublime,

And, departing, leave behind us, Footprints on the sands of time".

Thank you once again for the opportunity to have served the Sangha.

Basic Human Behaviour

The traditional saying "To be born a gentleman is an accident but to die a gentleman is an achievement" is apt in human relationships too. In the life of every person, whatever may be his intelligence and knowledge, if he cannot connect with others, he will not be very effective. In my earlier employment some capable senior managers failed when the environment was hot in the organization. Less competent managers get the rewards because of interpersonal intelligence appropriate to the situation.

When the relationship with a person is good, there will be a positive response and support from him. The personal rapport at work, which involves relationship with the boss or colleague, when 'good' will help at better performance with minimum hassles. The relationship building skills have appreciable contributions to growth and achievements. The situation everyone likes to live is the state of peace and joy.

Understanding basics of human nature is primarily necessary to build relationships. This knows as to why people behave as they do and also as to how they can be made to behave as wished. There should, however, be a belief in the goodness of human values. Putting an act, cheating and trying to build relationships based on falsehood have no place in lasting and long-term relationships. Ultimately what matters is a honest and genuine approach which comprises of giving, caring, loving, kindness, good manners and courtesy.

What matters most is paying attention to the needs of the dependants and the less privileged.

Persons who cannot command are the ones to be given special attention. But the high risk aspect is the behavior with the seniors and the customers. They are needed more and there is nothing to learn as to how to behave with them. Every person with common sense will be aware of that. None would disrespect an employer.

A smile increases the face value and enhances acceptability. Meaningful interactions will then follow.

Good manners, common courtesies and kindness are the essential ingredients of good relations. 'Thank you' is a powerful expression. The word 'Sorry' makes the transaction more delightful at the time of a conflict.

Empathy is another valuable attitude. Egotism should be shunned. Viewing situation from another person's point of view is what is to be practiced. It is just treating others as one would like to be treated.

Conclusion: To make matters happier, the individual should start living in the present. The future is still in the womb of time and the past will never come back, present is the gift of God in the literal sense too. It has to be accepted gratefully, and acknowledged gracefully. The present has to be used for the self and for the humanity as well. Ultimately, an individual has to become a genuine human being. To progress in life one needs the support and co-operation of many. There are big and small things required to get people on one's side. Building rich and deep relationship with others is what is to be attempted by everyone.

Sneha chinthane deeply regrets to note that

AMARA SULLIA PEASANTS REVOLT - 1837

First ever Freedom Movement by Farmers

- A. Girish Rai

Sullia taluk in Dakshina Kannada District surrounded with the western ghat where a historical revolution happend during 1837 in which Peasants from Amara Sullia, Madikeri and Bhagamandala fought for freedom from British oppression. This rebellion under the guidance of Kalyana Swamy had become a part of folklore in this region. The Rebellion with features of peasant uprising, was for restoring political socio and economic order. For over a fortnight, company flag was brought down and the Farmer's Revolutionary Flag was hoisted in front of the Canara Collecter's office which is called even now as BAVUTA GUDDA, meaning Flag Hill in Mangalore.

Amara Sullia Peasants Agitation, a heroic battle against the British Rule commenced on March 29th, 1837, exactly 20 years before the Sepoy Mutiny has been the very first Freedom Struggle wholly organized by the hardworking, peace loving innocent farmers of this Country. The fact that this Nationalist awareness germinated in the minds of people in an obscure far remote village, much before it downed on the people in other parts of the country is significant. This agitation also called as 'Canara Revolt' against the Britishers, depicts the living condition of farmers then. The colonization and consolidation of British power in India was prolonged and a Peace meal process, which resulted in discontent, resentment at every stage. The Kalyana Swamy, (also known as Kalyanappa) Rebellion of 1837 was the earliest instance of revolt against the British. The Army was behind the 1857 rebellion, but Amara Sullia Maagane agitation was wholly organized by the farmers who were so much agitated with the oppressive company rule, which they determined to end at any cost. After the death of Tippu Sultan in 1799, major change happened in Mysore province and coastal area fell into the hands of the Britishers which was named as Canara district. Kodagu also came under their rule during 1834. As a consequence, Amara Sullia Maagane (Hobli) a region of Kodagu became part of Canara District.

This caused several problems to the Peasants of Amara Sullia like the Land revenue which was paid in kind, giving their products such as food material etc to the Raja, now had be paid in Cash. The Peasants were forced to sell their products in the near by towns, through middle men, who were getting major share in this deal. This system was disliked by the farmers and were angered with the Britishers and well to do landlords of the area. The Kodagu Haleri Royalty which was founded by Lingaraja Arasu was deprived of their previlages. Kodagu (Also named Coorg, Madekari) came under the rule of Britishers during the time of Verappa Arasu, grand son of Lingaraja Arasu. People of Kodagu underwent many hardships during this period. Verappa Arasu became a Sanyasi and started to instigate the people to revolt against Britishers. Then the Britishers took him to custody and sent him to Tirucharapalli jail. After this another grand son of Lingaraja Arasu, Nanjunda Arasu changed his name as Kalyana Swamy, assembled the followers of Veerappa Arasu and started agitation against the British rule. He was also arrested and sent to Mysore jail. Later on both of them died in confinement. Putta Basappa, who was with both Veerappa Arasu and Nanjunda Arasu returned to his native place Shanivara Santhe and engaged in Agriculture. The agitatiors of Amara Sullia recognized this Putta Basappa and found in him the qualities of a Leader and brought him to sullia and renamed as Kalyanaswamy. They started with renewed confidence in the leadership of Kalyana Swamy and one Rame Gowda a local man to revolt against British rule.

THE UPRISING

The last Raja of Kodagu Chikka Veerandara Wodeyar who ruled from 1820-34 was constantly obstructed by the Britishers, interfering in the internal Administration of Kodagu. When the Raja disobeyed their orders, Britishers deposed him by force and appointed a company officer to administer Kodagu. People below the Ghats were also waiting for an opportunity to agitate against the British and to overthrow their rule. The opportunity came after the disposition of the Coorg Raja, and in Kalyana Swamy, who declared himself as the only surviving heir to the Coorg Throne, being the second son of Appaji, the uncle of Raja of Kodagu. People in large numbers joined him. Kalyana Swamy issued a proclamation to the people of Canara and Kodagu appealing for their support to overthrow the company rule. Farmers and their supporters assembled at Sullia and decided to start the agitation from 29th March 1837. They formed themselves into three Groups. The first group led by Kunchadka Thimmanna to proceed from Sullia via Mulleria, Kasargodu, Kumbla & Manjeshwar to reach Mangalore. The second group under the leadership of Kudekallu Puttanna to go to Puttur, Kotyadi and join Thimmanna group at Mulleria and go along with them. The main group with Kalyana Swamy and Kedambady Ramegowda to reach Mangalore touching Bellare, Puttur, Uppinangadi, Maani and Bantwal.

MARCH TO MANGALORE

Kalayana Swamy group reached Bellare on 29th march which was the main center of British administration. The bungalow was fortified with high raised walls. The group broke open the doors, killed the British officer took position of the treasury. The next day 30th March 1837 Kalyanappa met the people and on that day Amara Sullia Maagane fell into the hands of the Agitators. From then on with the stages the group reached Mangalore. The actual rebellion took place during March and April 1837. In Bellare 29th & 30th

March, the farmers attaked the government office and looted the treasury. On the night of 30th March a Report reached the Collector sent by the Sheristedar of Bantwal stating that about 2000 armed people had assembled at Bellare and took possession of the Peishcar's Cutchery. From Bellare, Kalyana Swamy and his followers marched to Puttur. At Puttur they attacked public offices and looted the treasurey. The British army under the leadership of the collector, reached Puttur, but the company's Army was easily routed by Kalyana Swami and his followers. Mr. Lewin, the Collector fled to Mangalore under the cover of darkness. Then 2nd April 1837. the rebels marched to Bantwal. At Bantwal Lakshmappa, a pensioned descendant of an old chieftain of that place and Manjappa Hegade of Dharmasthala supported them. When the main force was at Bantwal a small troop was sent to Kasargod on 2nd April and they looted the treasury there. From Bantwal the rebellion spread to Uppinangadi and Mulki. The forces of Kalyana Swamy marched from Bantwal to Mangalore on 3rd April and in the meantime Subraya Hegde of Tenku Kumble Kote was marching with an army towards Mangalore to help Kalyana Swamy. But one of the descendents of the Kumbala Raja brought this to the notice of the British at Tellicherry. Soon the British took steps to prevent them from crossing Netravati river. The rebels were thrown into the sea and made to drown. Hearing the news of Kalyana Swamy march towards Mangalore the English officials got frightened and left for Tellichery by sea route.

SHORT LIVED SUCCESS

After entering Mangalore, Kalyana Swami broke open the prison gates and freed the prisoners, took over the treasury and set fire to the houses of the English officers at Mangalore. For nearly a fortnight Mangalore was under the control of Kalyana Swamy and his revolutionary flag flew on the present Light House Hill in place of the Company's flag. But this success of Kalyana Swami was short lived. The British troops advanced from Tellicherry and suppressed the ill-disciplined and poorly armed force of Kalyana Swamy. They suppressed the rebellion and captured the leaders. The Government proclaimed Martial law in the district. The British succeeded in suppressing the rebellion and re-established their control by the end of April 1837 and Martial law was withdrawn by June 1837. Kalyana Swamy and other prominent leaders were hanged and the rest were deported to Singapore for life.

There is similarity between the Amara Sullia Peasants revolt and the American war of Independence also called as American Revolutionary war 1777-1783. It was an Armed conflict between Britain and the original thirteen North American colonies. It originated in the resistance of Americans to the taxes levied by Britishers. The destruction of a Shipment of Tea at Bostan Port, forced the Britishers take away the self Government granted to the colonies. Patriots setup a shadow Government and took of the provinces outside Boston. The colonial congress drafted George Washington a Land Lord into the war and made him the General of colonial Militia

After a prolonged war America became independent under the leadership of George Washington who became the first President. Though the centre of the movement was Philadelphia originally it was shifted to present Washington D.C. In the name of George Washington. Incidentally, the second President of America Thomas Jefferson was also a farmer. Even though the Peasants Rebellion failed still, the Peasants shedding the hesitations of History, it established a powerful early colonial protest against the British rule. It also brought the preeminent stratum of rural society, Peasants, honest and hardworking, without the Intellectual sophistry of the hyphenated Liberals of today, into the National Movement and added new dimensions to it's anti - imperialist struggle. The Peasantry whole heartedly supported the Rebellion, but the poorly armed Kalyan Swamy force was not able to drive out the well entrenched British Rule in India.

IMPORTANCE OF LAUGHTER IN LIFE

- Balakrishna Shetty (AB)

On the scientific front, laughter makes for good health. When a person laughs, chemicals named, endorphins are released. These are the same chemicals triggered in response to sexual stimulation.

They make a person feel good, relieving stress and indirectly reducing one's risks of suffering a heart attack and other health problems.

Laughing relaxes facial muscles that can become very tense especially on long working days. Plenty of laughter creates 'laugh lines' in a person's face, giving the person a kindly look as opposed to wrinkles and creases caused by stress, unhappiness and hardship, which age a person and give him or her a hard and angry appearance.

This fact is important in forming first impressions, which play a role in others acceptance of a person it may even affect a job interview or working relationships.

Laughter's importance can be observed in intense situations as well. It is used to defuse potentially explosives situations at times.

In friendship laughter is essential to ensure a long lasting relationship, in marriage many women want a man who sees the funny side of a life. A sense of humour is important to lift a relationship and there is something special almost intimate in sharing a joke with a friend or spouse.

Laughter is uplifting. It enriches a relationship by taking it to a deeper level where there is understanding and a mutual letting go of a person's inhibitions and reservations.

Despite laughter's importance and benefits, there are certain rules to remember. One does not laugh when someone dies. One does not laugh at others' beliefs and one certainly does not laugh at those who suffer mishaps. There is a time and a place for everything, including laughter. While laughter brings joy and is very important in daily life, it is best directed at oneself, or at events that are not sensitive. We must always be conscious of others' sensitivities and respect others' beliefs.

Laughter can be dangerous, when it is mocking and derisive. It can be very hurtful when laughter is used to single out a person, race or creed.

It is important to laugh, but also keep in mind that we should laugh for the right reasons and in the right situations. No matter how funny a sensitive issue may seem to a person, it is probably wiser to control ones laughter and to a private chuckle.

Laughter at oneself on the other hand is an endearing trait that lets a person take himself less seriously. It can be even a profitable, as in the case of stand-up comedians and comics who put up theatrical performances which audiences willingly pay for.

The importance of laughter is immense. It is a relief to know that across the world, laughter's importance being emphasized by scientists, psychologists and health workers as well as by artists who make a living out of laughter.

In India, there is even a group of people called the 'laughter club' who gather occasionally and laugh for a few minutes without stopping. Laughter is a powerful, wonderful thing. Amidst the drudgery and toil of life, in the depths of despair and even in our nadir of existence, if we can learn to laugh, we can learn to live, to press on.

"Differently Abled "Trainees made difference in SASMOS

Our member, Mr. Rajashekar Rai, Chief Human Resource in SASMOS HET Technologies Limited & Fokker Elmo SASMOS Interconnection Systems Limited (an Aerospace & Defense Segment Industry) has initiated a specialised and exclusive Training Program in building skills & competencies for "Differently Abled" (hearing & Speech impaired) candidates.

This is a first ever experiment & effort in Aerospace Industry.

Mr. Rai took up this initiative along with a technical team and trained them in critical, complex and highly technology driven process of Aerospace & Defense products through an unique module blended with coaching, teaching, guiding and on the job training for a period of one year.

Currently 30 candidates have been trained and employed successfully; they have shown outstanding improvement in acquiring the skills and expertise

It was a great challenge and experiment to convert the technology into sign languages especially in Aerospace and Defense field.

"Our aim is to create an inclusive society where people with disability are accepted into the main stream Economy and Social life, to bring a culture where they can earn, live and sustain with dignity" says Mr. Rajashekar Rai

We congratulate Mr. Rajashekar Rai for his commendable social contribution.

BUNTS' SANGHA RNS COMPOSITE P.U. COLLEGE COLLEGE TALENTS DAY – 2016

"All the world's a stage, And all the men and women, merely players", a famous quote of Shakespeare, suits our I PUC students very aptly, who displayed their talents wonderfully on the occasion of 'Talents Day', which head started on 20th July 2016.

The event began with the invocation song and welcome speech followed by lighting of lamp by Principal, members, Head boy & Head girl.

Principal Sri Nagesha N.S. addressed the young aspirants about the tradition of giving a platform for the first P.U. students to showcase their hidden talents. He reiterated that everyone should work as R.N.S. team and take ownership of their activities.

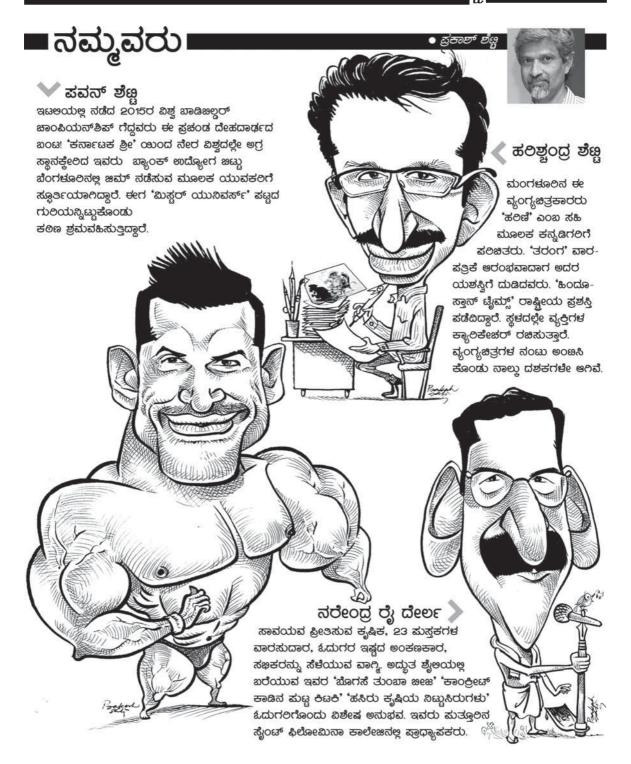

The joyous occasion came to an end with rendering of vote of thanks and National Anthem. The jubilant smiles of the prize winners became the keep sakes in all our memories.

BUNTS' SANGHA RNS COMPOSITE P.U. COLLEGE

INVESTITURE CEREMONY & FELICITATION OF 10TH STD TOPPERS -2016 (ICSE & STATE BOARD)

A prestigious occasion for all the students of Bunts' Sangha RNS Vidyaniketan and P.U. College was the Investiture Ceremony and Felicitation of 10th Std Toppers (ICSE & State Board) which was held on 16th July 2016.

It was a momentos event for all of us because the prefects of our institution were selected and elected and given the responsibility of navigating their respective classes in particular and the institution as a whole.

The Chief Guest for the day, Dr. Naresh Shetty, President of Bunts' Sangha, graced the occasion along with the Hon' Secretary, Sri H. Sridhar Hegde, Bunts' Sangha and Sri Santosh Kumar Shetty, Treasurer, Bunts' Sangha.

The programme began with Invocation song. Welcome speech was addressed by the Principal, Sri Nagesha N.S. followed by the lighting of lamp by dignitaries on dias.

Dr. Naresh Shetty fastened the badges and handed over the flags to the students' council. Office bearers of the school and college and Captains of all the houses were elected as well.

Vice Principal, Mrs. Anju Naik, administered the oath to all the elected leaders. All the leaders made a promise that they will adhere to the rules and norms prescribed for being effective leaders and will strive hard to maintain peace, discipline and decorum of the institution.

Toppers of 10th ICSE, State Board and Centum scorers in different subjects were felicitated with the certificates and shields.

The Chief Guest, Dr. Naresh Shetty was invited to address the gathering. His words were real eye opener for all of us especially to our students. He called out today's youth to be passionate as each one of them is a leader by his own strength. The video which very effectively showed us that smile is contageous was proved by the proverb, "When you smile at the world, the world smiles back at you". He also said that, discipline must be inculcated in every individual from the grass root level. 'Swach Bharath' is the need of the hour. Dr. Naresh Shetty very subtly and effectively gave us the message of taking the ownership to make the world a better place to live in.

Vote of thanks was rendered by the College Lecturer, Ms. Vidya. B followed by cultural programme & National Anthem.

BUNTS' SANGHA R.N.S. VIDYANIKETAN Talents Day – Saviskar-2016-17

"Grab the opportunity when it knocks your door"

'Saviskar', Talents Day was celebrated on 7th and 8th July at Bunts' Sangha R.N.S. Vidyaniketan, to provide a platform and bring out the greatest potential in students in various fields of interest. All the students put in their potentials to compete for being the best.

A wide range of events were organised for the students from various clubs. Some of the highlights of the events were soliloquy, Ken-ken, Cooking mania, Plasbo art, Photography, Entertainment trilogy etc. The spirit of teamwork as well as creativity was rekindled among the students.
